11th Annual RBC Race For The Kids

Date and Time: Saturday, September 23 8:00 am - 12:00 pm

Address: 5100 Yonge St

It's almost that time of year where we get ready to lace our runners and support youth mental health. This year mark's the 11th annual RBC Race for the Kids in Toronto, all in support of Sunnybrook's Family Navigation Project (FNP). FNP is a non-profit program that has a team of experts who help youth, aged 13-26 experiencing mental health concerns, and their families navigate the system. To date, over $20 million has been raised from the race, in support of FNP, but with the number of youth reaching out for help significantly increasing, there is still much more to be done.

Returning on Saturday, September 23, at Mel Lastman Square, RBC Race for the Kids invites all to participate in support of youth mental health. Proceeds from the race will benefit Sunnybrook's Family Navigation Project (FNP), a non-profit program assisting youth aged 13-26, and their families who are facing mental health and/or addiction issues. The program, located in the GTA, is designed to partner with youth and their families throughout their journey, assisting them in accessing the most suitable care options for their specific needs.

Haydon Kitchen Party with Kerri Ough and Ben Whiteley

Date and Time: Saturday, September 30 7:00 pm - 11:00 pm

Address: Haydon Community Hall 2503 Concession 8, Haydon

The Haydon Kitchen Party is a bi-annual event held in the rural community of Haydon, in a small school house. This fall we are pleased to host Kerri Ough (1/3 of the Good Lovelies), accompanied by Ben Whiteley on bass. The event is $35 and tickets are available at www.brownpapertickets.com/event/6121917. Food is included in the ticket price, and there will be a cash bar. Follow us on FACEBOOK and INSTAGRAM for more information @haydoncommunityhall. Here's a little more info about our musical guests:

A lifelong musician and artist, Kerri Ough is perhaps best-known as one-third of the acclaimed folk-roots harmony trio and Juno-award winners the Good Lovelies - though she simultaneously enjoys a successful solo career when she's not on tour with the band.

In early 2019, Kerri released her debut solo-album "One Day Soon" and celebrated with an east coast tour alongside Royal Wood. The album charted across Canadian radio stations and her song "Beautiful Day" was featured in an episode of CBC's Kim's Convenience. In late 2021 Kerri released a five-song solo EP called "Afterthoughts."

Kerri will be joined at the Haydon Kitchen Party by her longtime friend and collaborator Ben Whiteley (Weather Station, Basia Bulat, Sarah Harmer) on upright bass and vocals to bring her lush solo composition to the stage - while of course sprinkling in some of her favourite Good Lovelies songs in the mix.

Up next? Kerri and the Good Lovelies will release their 10th album on October 6th and will be hitting the road across Canada, the UK and the US in support of that album.
